DISCUSSION

The Grand Jury issued a report on June 5, 2014 based on their review of how the Health Agency informs the public about restaurant food safety. The Environmental Health Services Division of the Public Health Department in the Health Agency is responsible for monitoring, regulating and preventing the occurrence of foodborne illnesses. A key element of the Retail Food Safety program is regular inspection of restaurants in the county. The Grand Jury Report titled "Kitchen Confidential: Do you know if your restaurant makes the grade?" focuses on how the Health Agency informs the dining public about the food safety status of their favorite restaurants.

The Grand Jury report included six Findings and five Recommendations. The Board of Supervisors and the Health Agency are both required to respond to Findings 2 – 6 and Recommendations 1-5. The required response from the Health Agency is provided in Attachment 1. Staff is recommending that your Board adopt the response provided by the Health Agency as your Board's response.
